

PGI: MATLABUKELE RAMPINE

Rampine and Tefo Farms is a registered pig farm that is owned by two partners;

Matlabukele Rampine and Tefo Sefothane.

The farm started in 2012 in the Maseru district where the partners ran a pilot project with 5 Camborough pigs to test the pig-gery industry.

Company:

District:

Resource Centre:

Rampine and Tefo Farms

Botha Bothe

Khukhune Resource Centre,

Tsime-Khukhune

After a successful pilot, they then moved to a larger space in Botha Bothe and legally registered the company in 2014.

They received a grant from Small-holder Agriculture Development Project (SADP) and currently have 27 Camboroughs, two boars and they sell about 216 piglets in a year.

Their current market includes The Meat Maputsoe, Lecholi Ha Thetsane, Elangeni Botha Bothe, and many more.

“
*They received a grant
from Small-holder
Agriculture
Development Project (SADP) and
currently have 27
Camboroughs,*
”